London Cabs and Cabbies

Today, London counts about 20,000 black cabs with more than 24,000 cabbies. Whatever the colour and whatever the model, they still are black cabs. Although the FX4, first (56)..... in the Sixties, seems to be everyone's favourite. So much so that the new TX1 model has been built to look like a genuine London cab! But the shape and form of the cab isn't the only thing that (57)..... London taxis the best in the world - because that's what they are! - their international success has (58)..... to do with the drivers too!

In (59) cases, cabbies are the first persons visitors to London (60)...... - the first thing they hear is something like "Where to, Guv'?". They are the ones who help tourists discover the capital and sometimes (61)..... they see before leaving. As such, cabbies have a great part to play in how London (62) in the rest of the world. They are the true representatives of the city and they leave a lasting impression - a good one, more often than not! "For a start, they know where they are going", said one New-Yorker, "which is rare (63)..... I come from!" It's no surprise when you consider that cabbies in London have to go through the very serious "Knowledge" (64)..... they get the green and gold badge of their profession.

(65)..... "Knowledge" was introduced in 1851 and (66) a list of 400 runs through London that the would-be driver must learn. He/she (67)..... know the streets, squares, hotels, theatres, government and public buildings, railway and police stations, courts, places of worship...and the list goes on. If you need (68) on where to go, never hesitate to ask. They know more about (69)..... place in London than anyone else. And if you need someone with the finger on the pulse of London, look no further than that golden taxi sign. (70)..... your arm and shout: "TAXI!"
